Eco Fabulous: The World's Greatest Green Retreats

| 0 of 10 | Next

The world of eco retreats has gotten a whole lot more crowded — and confusing — in recent years. Amid the growing glut of country lodges touting their green credentials, we've selected 10 of our favorites. From the world's highest lake (in Peru), to Australia's Kangaroo Island to the upper clutches of the Swiss Alps, we've sifted through the greenwash and sought out the true standouts in sustainable luxe. What unites our picks is a pioneering spirit based on the vision that yes, it's possible to trip the life fantastic and also check your carbon footprint at the door.
